Subject (in full) A. Orloff Application to SMC for employment.

Made by P.C.S. Maklaevsky

Forwarded by J.W. Guiness A.B. P.D.

With reference to the attached application inquiries show that applicant, A. Orloff, White Russian, residing at 13A Park Terrace, Scott Road, arrived in Shanghai from Vladivostock in 1923 after the White Russian Army had been defeated by the Bolsheviks. After his arrival he obtained casual employment as a pianist in different Russian Restaurants. In 1925 he opened an advertising Company which, however, was not very successful and in 1926 during the General Strike he joined the Asiatic Petroleum Coy., where he was employed until the end of the strike in June 1927. He then became manager of the Russian Vodka Factory "Mercury" at 269 Avenue Joffre until November 1927, when he opened his own Mineral Water Coy. "Elite", which closed in November 1928 owing to business depression. He is now a Lieutenant in the Russian Company of the S.I.C.

Orloff is generally regarded as having a shady reputation.
